

Hello everyone

Here are a few of our favourite sightseeing options for your stay in Sydney.

This official tour bus is excellent, stopping at many major attractions. You can hop on and off as much as you like, and there are various ticketing options.

<http://www.city-sightseeing.com/tours/australia/sydney.htm>

The site has links to cruise information, and in summer a cruise of the beautiful Sydney harbour is a must.

<http://www.city-sightseeing.com/info/cruise-port-information.htm>

Adventurous types will enjoy the bridge climb – so long as they have a head for heights!

<http://www.bridgeclimb.com/?gclid=CKXtwp6-q8ACFdJ8vQodMUYAoA>

Bargain hunters will love Paddy's Markets, from there you can explore Sydney's Chinatown district for tai chi souvenirs and great dim sum.

<http://www.paddysmarkets.com.au/>

Animal lovers can buy a day ticket covering the ferry fare and entrance to the spectacular Taronga Zoo.

http://www.experienceoz.com.au/sydney/attractions/taronga-passes?gclid=CNSi_I2_q8ACFU8HvAodXplAhA

Of course you can't come to Sydney without seeing the Opera House! There are lots of great food venues there too, from fish and chips right through to five star

<http://www.sydneyoperahouse.com/homepage.aspx>

For culture vultures, Sydney has over thirty assorted museums! Read more here http://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/List_of_museums_in_Sydney

Hunter Valley is a beautiful venue for a day tour, some tours include overnights accommodation, so you can linger over a winery tour

<http://www.bluemountainstoursydney.com.au/>

